On occasion, movie events may take place on Fridays and/or in the month of October. Additionally, movies are rescheduled in the event of cancellation due to weather or other unforeseen conditions when practical.

3. The curfew for movie events is 11:00 p.m., and seasonal sunset times plus movie run times shall be considered to ensure that events conclude on time. Breakdown and clean-up may extend beyond 11:00 p.m. depending upon the facility and subject to Parks & Recreation Department approval.
4. The August movie event is part of a larger program called Back-to-School Bash (BTSB), with an end of summer theme. BTSB has pre-movie activities such as food trucks, family-oriented games, arts and crafts, movie themed characters in costume, vendors, and the Cornelius Police Department back-to-school supplies drive.
5. The remaining three movies typically include food truck concessions, craft beer available for purchase (via local brewery), family-oriented yard games, interactive activities, and/or other events suitable for citizens of all ages.
6. All four (4) events have traditionally been offered free of charge.
7. All movies have been family-friendly and suitable for public presentation. Movie selections typically consisted of those rated G, PG, or PG-13.
8. The Town of Cornelius's movie series is meant to offer a safe and fun outdoor movie viewing opportunity for Cornelius residents while showcasing many of the Town’s beautiful parks.
